150/19 Matters Arising

The hedges on both the recreation grounds to be cut.

151/19 Planning

Proposed removal of BT payphone kiosk – Main Street

The Parish Council wish for this facility to remain in the village.

152/19 Recreation Ground Matters

a) Play inspections

Cllr Till to carry out the inspections

b) Risk Assessments

These are pending to be put on the agenda for next month

c) Horeston Recreation Ground Litter Bins

Clerk reported that Cllr Illiffe had put the problem with the bins to Members Services who have reported back to the Clerk, the bins on the Horeston Recreation Ground is only being partly emptied by Amber Valley as the waste is too heavy for one person to lift. Amber Valley will only empty 25kg bins of waste, therefore the Council would have to have 4 of these bins to replace the one bin. Cllr Whitmore has contacted Cllr Stevenson at Amber Valley to ask for assistance in this matter. This to be put on the agenda for next month.

153/19 Cultivation Licence

A response has not been received from Derbyshire County Council regarding the cultivation licence for Four Lane Ends, Clerk to ask DCC to check how long it will be before we receive the licence.

Planters

RESOLVED: Members agreed to plant up the planters in the village for winter and the budget is £20 per planter.

154/19 Church Hall Bell

To be put on the agenda for next month.
