

HORSLEY WOODHOUSE PARISH COUNCIL
Minutes of Parish Meeting of Horsley Woodhouse Parish Council held on Tuesday 10th April 2018 at the British Legion, Horsley Woodhouse

54/18 Present

Councillors K Seals (Chairman), I Ratcliffe, S Till, S McGuinness, J Whitmore and A Nathan

55/18 Apologies

Cllr R Illiffe

56/18 Public Session

6 members of the public were present and expressed their concerns over the proposed new installation of play equipment on the Horeston Recreation Ground, and the anti-social behaviour of a number of youths which have been gathering on the recreation ground.

Members informed the Parishioners that a police surgery has been set up so that any concerns members of public have can meet with the police and discuss these issues. Parishioners were encouraged to report any incidents through the 101 police number to ensure all crime in the village is recorded.

Members agreed to look at moving the dog waste bin, as a Parishioner was concerned it was too close to her property.

Members reported that cctv cameras will be installed on the Horeston Recreation Ground.

Clerk to report to the dog warden at Amber Valley that there are groups of dog walkers on the recreation ground that are not picking up after their dogs have fouled the area.
